This Remembrance Day, November 11, our parish family unites in prayer and quiet gratitude to honour the bravery and sacrifice of Canada's veterans and active service members. We remember with deep reverence those who gave their lives for peace and justice, as well as the families who carried the weight of their duty back home. As we wear our poppies, let us carry forward their legacy by remaining dedicated to peace, compassion, and reconciliation in our community and world. Lest we forget.

Please Join Us this Sunday: Our wonderful Knights of Columbus are whipping up another batch of their amazing pancakes, accompanied by a full breakfast with ham, eggs, English muffins, fantastic coffee and tea... and don't forget the great company and conversation served right alongside.

Breakfast is available following the 9am and 11:15am Masses. Breakfast is by donation.

TIME CHANGE - one more weekend. Please join us for our bi-weekly Food Recovery Program Giveaway at 5:30pm (or after the conclusion of the 4:30pm Mass).

PROCEDURE CHANGE - Seniors shopping alone and individuals requiring mobility aids such as walkers, canes, or are moving slowly due to injury are asked to form a separate line at the gate and will be invited in to the gymnasium 10 minutes prior to opening for all. Please note, this privilege is for individual shoppers only to provide those most vulnerable among us an opportunity to select fairly for themselves.

LARGE CARTS AND BUGGIES - We will be asking all large carts and buggies to be parked along the side of the gymnasium. We will have volunteers standing along the wall to protect belongings, shopping bags, carts and buggies.

Please bake a little something special for our Seminarians. Collection will take place before and after Mass in the vestibule on Saturday, Nov 28th and Sunday, Nov 29th.

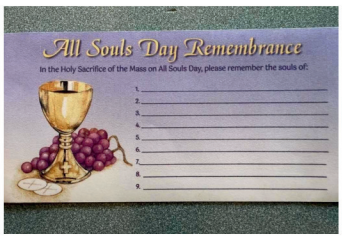

Please join us for our annual Advent Wreath Night where we come together as a community and joyously craft and prepare our families' beautiful and fresh advent wreaths. Our Altar Servers will be present and providing homemade hot cocoa and we will also have our traditional mulled cider available.

Please RSVP so we can prepare appropriately for the event.
